CLAREMONT MCKENNA COLLEGE

The Middle School Public Debate Program (MSPDP), an initiative of Claremont McKenna College, is working in partnership with The English-Speaking Union of the United States to recruit new schools and teachers for the New York Debate League based in New York.

This low-cost program features an exciting competitive debate format designed exclusively for middle school students. MSPDP includes standards-aligned materials and textbook, mentoring for new teachers and ongoing classroom support.

JOIN US TO LEARN MORE! Teachers from all subject areas interested in essential critical thinking, speaking and deliberation skills are invited for an introductory workshop that will challenge and inspire educators of all experience levels. Curriculum materials provided.

Debate Workshop includes:

- Introduction to debating concepts and teaching methods
- Application of debating, public speaking, and argument literacy techniques for multiple subject areas
- Assessment and evaluation
- Observation of a student debate
- Certification as a coach and judge in the MSPDP

MSPDP Director and Workshop Leader Dr. Kate Shuster is the author of ten textbooks on debate and curriculum development. An internationally-recognized debate trainer, Dr. Shuster is the director of the world's largest debating program designed exclusively for middle school students.
