

ESU National Membership Application Form

Join the English-Speaking Union of the United States to support and participate in its local and national programs. Full membership comprises National ESU membership as well as membership in one of the 73 Branches across the country, which meet regularly for educational and social events and which undertake scholarship, literacy, speaker and book exchange activities. Through this application, you will be enrolled at the National level. Subsequently you will be contacted by the ESU Branch in your area, if there is one locally, about its membership dues and programs. All members receive copies of national publications and may use the facilities at the National Headquarters in New York City as well as Dartmouth House, headquarters of the ESU of the Commonwealth in London.

This form may be printed out, completed and mailed or faxed to ESU US National Headquarters with payment by check or credit card. Alternatively, payment by credit card may be submitted on line via a secure server at <https://formdesk.com/esuus/membershipapp>
