Alternative Dining (included in your cruise fare)

The King's Court – all day buffet

Welcoming guests from early morning until late in the evening, this informal dining venue is anchored around buffet-style self-service. Find between-meal snacks or a diversity of dishes at mealtime -- from continental and cooked breakfasts to home-style pizzas, hearty roasts, fragrant curries, fresh salads and hand rolled sushi. Afternoons bring a more informal take on our traditional Afternoon Tea, with a selection of finger sandwiches and mini patisserie accompanied by your choice of hot drink. Dinner offers up a worldly selection of global delicacies to tempt you – with different options available each day. After 11:30pm the focus switches to winding down before bedtime with cookies and cocoa alongside fast-food inspired favorites, such as succulent lamb Shawarma, crispy fries and chili tacos – ideal if you're feeling peckish after dancing in the Queens Room or at G32. Casual dress is welcomed all day, even on Gala Evenings,

Alternative Dining (at additional cost)

Steakhouse at the Verandah

Open for lunch and dinner, the Steakhouse at the Verandah is perfect for special occasions, with an exceptional menu featuring USDA prime cuts and superb seafood. Lunchtimes are a relaxed affair with an informal dress code and a slimmed-down menu offering guest favorites such as the Signature Cunarder burger with bone marrow mayonnaise. After 6 p.m. the dress code switches to smart attire with optional jacket, while the menu expands to include a wider steak selection and a Fruit de Mer platter laden with fresh lobster, Scottish langoustines, and Atlantic crab, among other oceanic delights.
