

English in Action

International Public Speaking Competition

IPSC brings together the best speakers from all over the world for a week of competition, training and international cultural exchange in London. Over 40,000 students from 50 countries participate in the competition each year.

National IPSC Qualifying Rounds

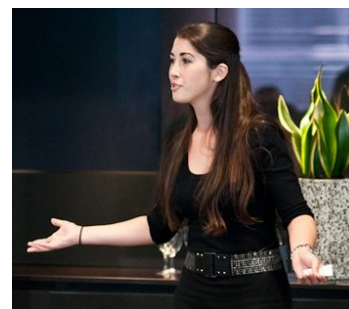

*National IPSC contestants present a 5 minute speech on this year's theme:
The best way to predict the future is to invent it.*

Timeline

- Monday, February 12, 2018: Submission deadline (Limited to first 50 entrants. Instructions online.)
- Week of February 26, 2018: US Finalists notified
- March 6 and 7, 2018: US Finals via Skype

Eligibility

- You must be 16—20 years old
- You must be a US National

The US National Competition winner...

receives an all-expenses paid trip to London, England!

One student will be chosen to represent the United States in the ESU International Public Speaking Competition, to be held May 14-19, 2018.

Register to participate in the US National Competition today!

