The English-Speaking Union of the United States is proud to announce the competition for the 2015-2016 Luard Morse Scholarship. The Scholarship enables a current student attending a UNCF school, Howard or Hampton universities to spend a semester in England during his or her Junior Year at an English university.

The Scholarship funds up to $25,000 for round trip transportation, tuition, room & board, books and necessary expenses for a semester at an English university.

The Scholarship is open to applicants during their sophomore year who are pursuing a degree in any major field. Applicants must be U.S. citizens. Candidates must excel academically (minimum 3.0) and demonstrate strong leadership skills and community involvement.

Candidates must demonstrate interest in international affairs or culture or issues of global significance.

Candidates must feel confident that they will be able to adjust readily to living and studying abroad.
