

September 13, 2025

Options for Our Futures

Stephanie Tassone, of NY Connects at the Office of the Aging, will present an overview of Onondaga County's Adult and Long Term Services such as home care, transportation, and meals aimed to help individuals remain in their home as long as possible.

Stephanie Tassone

Introduced by Aileen Balitz

-----

October 11, 2025

OHA Away Macabre

This Halloween season, experience a cauldron of local spooky traditions and tales brought to life with the help of Scott Peal from Onondaga Historical Association and actor Jesse Navagh. Learn about "strange occurrences" in the Salt City's past.

Scott Peal and Jesse Navagh

Introduced by Mary Richardson

November 8, 2025

Feeding Body and Soul

The Food Bank of CNY is a vital lifeline in the fight against hunger. With Dir. Brian Ahsmann we'll explore the mission, operations, and impact of food banks in our communities and get an inside look at how food banks work behind the scenes.

Brian Ahsmann

Introduced by Shirley Cruickshank

-----

December 6, 2025*

Holiday Concert of Harps

The Harp and Soul group of professional Harp players will present their amazing instruments and perform holiday music to put us in the joyous mood of the holiday season.

Harp and Soul

Introduced by Alice Borning

January 10, 2026

What's New at the Zoo?

An Educator from our nationally accredited Rosamond Gifford Zoo will make us proud. Our zoo is in the top 10% of zoos for conservation education and animal care plus so much more.

Kim Arnold or other Educator

Introduced by JoAnn Wallace

-----

February February 14, 2026

Shakespeare for Everyone

Marguerite Mitchell, Founding Dir. of Educ. at Red House Arts Center, explores why Shakespeare's stories still hit home today, especially for people who often don't see themselves in his work.

 Help us make the Shakespeare Competition possible by joining in the Angel Appeal.

Marguerite Mitchell

Introduced by Kathleen Hinchman